10 CENTS PER WEEK.

NEARING A CLOSE

Three Witnesses Have Testified in the Powers Case.

ANOTHER WITNESS IS WANTED

The Court Said That No Delay Would Be Permitted, But Witness Would Be Sought.

SOME OF THE TESTIMONY.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 24.—Powers' attorneys have asked that the court have Jim Howard's brother here to testify for him. Judge Cantrill said he would not delay the case, but would try and bring Howard here this afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon N. L. McDanel testified that after Goebel was shot he heard Dr. Robinson of Frankfort say, "Let's get guns and kill Taylor and every white Republican on the square."

State Senator J. B. Huff said when Goebel was shot he was coming out of the agricultural building. He contradicted Col. Jack Chinn, who said he remained at Goebel's side. Senator Huff said when he saw Col. Chinn he was on the steps of the state house a good distance from Goebel.

Col. C. C. Mengel and Col. D. W. Gray, officers of the First regiment, Kentucky State Guard, testified that by previous arrangement the words "All right" sent to them in a telegram by Adj. Gen. D. R. Collier meant that the regiment should be brought to Frankfort with its full equipment.

B. O. Reynolds, former registrar of the land office, said there was no plan to send Henry Berry of Fayette county by force. Mr. Reynolds also swore that W. H. Culton told him he had a contract with the commonwealth whereby he was not to be prosecuted.

W. H. Culton was recalled by the defense at the night session. Culton denied that he ever told Joseph Robinson of Frankfort that if he, Culton, should go on the witness stand and confess complicity in a plot to murder Goebel he would be telling a lie.

Culton was asked if he had told W. H. Anderson that he knew nothing of a plot to kill Goebel, and had never heard Powers make any threats against him. Culton said he had not made such statements.

Robinson H. Anderson then went on the stand and swore that the respective conversation did not occur.

The chief witness in the Powers' case this morning was ex-Postmaster Bosley, of Paris, Ky., who flatly contradicted the statements of the Stivers brother as to Bosley remarking that a plan had been completed to "fix" Goebel. Bosley denied being in Frankfort on any of the dates Stivers mentioned.

CLASH OVER KOREA.

DR. MASTIN THINKS RUSSIA WILL TAKE INITIATIVE.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 24.—Dr. William M. Mastin, distinguished as a surgeon and physician, has returned from a tour of the Orient, where he carefully noted the trend of events. He says that war is inevitable between Russia and Japan over the possession of Korea. Russia, he says, will take the initiative, but Japan is making preparations for war and will fight for what she regards as her rights. As Korea is indispensable to Russia in the extension of her commerce, Dr. Mastin is sure Russia will ultimately control it.

ARM PAINFULLY HURT.

Mr. William Scott, an employe of the Paducah Street railway, cut shed department, was painfully injured last night about midnight while repairing a car. He was turning a bolt when his wrench slipped and his right arm was cut just below the elbow by striking a cog wheel. He went to the railroad hospital and had the injury dressed by Dr. J. R. M. Dillon.

CIRCUIT COURT.

There was little business transacted in circuit court this morning that is of interest to the public. The case of R. M. Allen vs. City of Paducah was re-instated on the docket. In the case of F. G. Haldolph against Ida Dickerson, Jesse B. Moss was appointed guardian ad litem for the infants Katherine, Earle and Ethel Dickerson.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

Paris, Tenn., Oct. 24.—A double wedding was consummated today at this place when Geo. Schraeder and Miss Oly Martin and J. E. Guthrie and Miss Flora Leach were married. The parties are all of Hanle, Ky., and came over in Tennessee to escape the law which has reference to ages.

BRILLIANT EVENT

Marriage of Miss Edna Wallerstein to Mr. David Levy.

Temple Israel Was Thronged With Friends and Relatives of the Couple.

The marriage of Miss Edna Wallerstein to Mr. David Levy of St. Louis at Temple Israel last evening at 8:30 o'clock was a most beautiful ceremony, as well as a brilliant social occasion. Early in the evening carriages containing women in handsome gowns and men in evening suits began to arrive, until the Temple was filled to its capacity, and presented a most attractive scene, even before the bride and groom arrived. The decorations were very beautiful and elaborate, being in white and green, the only touch of color was pink in the double and entwined hearts of white and pink roses that hung above the altar.

Prof. Charles Davis presided at the organ, and under his magic touch the "Lohengrin wedding march" never sounded more beautiful.

The bride wore an elegant and effective gown of white crepe meteor, trimmed with duchesse lace and pearls. She looked especially handsome. The groom was accompanied by Mr. James Greenbaum as best man. Little Miss Sarah Rosenfeld of Rochester, N. Y., a cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer, and was quite a charming feature of the wedding party. Messrs. Edwin Weil, Melvin Wallerstein, Chas. Well, Sam Livingston, Simon Hecht and Morris May, as ushers, preceded the bride to the altar. The beautiful Jewish ceremony was impressively performed by Rabbi Alexander of Temple Israel, assisted by Dr. W. H. Fineschreiber of Davenport, Iowa.

There were a number of out-of-town guests present for the occasion. After the wedding ceremony an elegant reception was given Mr. and Mrs. Levy at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wallerstein, on North Seventh street. The house was attractively decorated in a profusion of cut flowers, palms, and ferns. Here in the beautiful parlors the bride and groom received numerous good wishes and congratulations from their hosts of friends. A charming feature of the occasion was the betrothal announcement of the pretty young daughter of the household, Miss May Wallerstein, to Dr. William H. Fineschreiber, of Davenport, Iowa, who then divided honors with the bride and groom. Many guests handsomely attired were present during the evening, and an elaborate and delightful wedding supper was served.

Mrs. Levy is too well known here to need any words of comment. She is exceedingly popular, and will be greatly missed in the social circle. Mr. Levy has many friends here also. They left at midnight for Buffalo, and will reside in St. Louis.

THE SCHLEY CASE.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The report that Schley would testify before the court of inquiry packed the room today. Captain Clark, of the Oregon, was the third witness called. Schley comes next, and closes the defense. Captain Clark, of the Oregon, warmly commended Schley and the management of the Brooklyn in the battle of Santiago.

Admiral Schley went on he stand this afternoon and his testimony will occupy today and tomorrow.

TOBACCO MEN ORGANIZE.

Clarksville, Tenn., Oct. 24.—A permanent organization was formed by the tobacco growers of the Clarksville district here. The object of the organization is the mutual protection of the members and to stimulate competition among those who buy from the planters. C. H. Fort, of Robertson county, Tennessee, is the president, and he will appoint vice presidents from every county in the district who shall compose the executive committee with the power to form local organizations in each county, which shall send delegates to another general meeting to be held here next December.

CURRIE-MANN.

Brownsville, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Miss Nora Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Mann, and Will T. Currie, were married last evening at the Zion Methodist church. Rev. Ben Currie of Kentucky officiated. The attendants were Misses Ida Nail, Anna Thomas, Sue Currie, Vovie Walker and Mrs. Sam Taylor, Joe T. Mann, Arthur Smith and Drs. D. I. Dupree and A. W. Livingston.

MARRIAGE IN OWENSBORO. Owensboro, Oct. 24.—Miss Mary Small and Mr. Charles Wells will be married October 24 at the residence of the bride.

THE WEATHER.

Fair weather tonight and Friday.

HARD FIGHT

The Illinois Central's Enterprise Has Been Resisted at New Orleans.

FIGHTING THE RIVER MEN

The Railroad Shops Here Are Showing the Effects of the Lay Off.

LATE RAILROAD MATTERS.

Reports from New Orleans show that the Illinois Central is having a hard fight in its efforts to build a $1,000,000 dock and wharf. A dispatch says: "The Illinois Central and Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroads, this morning filed suit in the civil district court against the levee board applying for a mandamus to compel it to grant the railroad companies the right to proceed with the work undertaken on the property belonging to them running from Gen. Taylor street to Napoleon avenue. The suit is the outcome of the long continued opposition with which the Illinois Central has been met by the board of trade, the dock commission which seeks to have jurisdiction of the Illinois Central's private wharves and the newly developed opposition of the levee board."

"The Illinois Central wants to spend at least $1,000,000 in extending its terminal facilities at Stuyvesant docks. It had already begun work on 2,700,000 feet of additional covered wharf when the levee board stepped in. The fight against the Illinois Central is conducted by those who do not believe in giving away the river front to a railroad. It is unusual, however for objection to be raised by a city or a city board to a corporation spending money in the community."

The machine shops presented a rather desolate appearance this morning. Besides those laid off by the orders issued yesterday there are many who quit the fore part of the week. About 11 men were taken out of the boiler shops and many more were taken out of the blacksmith shops.

Engineers Joe Randall, Lloyd Grimes and W. F. Collins left yesterday for Memphis where they will attend a special called meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers which will begin today and remain in session for two days.

Mr. George Denker, of the night force of the yardmaster's department of the I. C., will take a vacation soon. He will probably leave the city tomorrow and Mr. J. J. Hunter will act as substitute in his absence.

The advertising car of the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Bros. circus passed through the city this morning on the early morning train en route to Columbus, Ind., where the circus will shortly go into winter quarters.

Master Byers Staten, the son of Mr. E. N. Staten, the night I. C. ticket agent, is in the city on a visit to his father.

Mr. Chas. Sugars, the day chief clerk in the yardmaster's office, is on the sick list today.

Mr. Ira Landrum, of the blacksmith shops, is on the sick list today.

Fireman Fred Williams of the I. C., is ill and unable to be on duty.

OPPOSITION TO WU.

PROBABLE THAT THE CHINESE MINISTER WILL BE RECALLED AND GIVEN A POSITION ON THE NEW BOARD.

Pekin, Oct. 24.—There is strong opposition among conservative Chinese against Wu Tingfang, the American Chinese minister. It is probable that Mr. Wu will be recalled and given a position on the new board of foreign affairs, where his linguistic and legal attainments may be utilized under the eye of the government.

RECEIVED BY DIAZ

Mexico City, Oct. 24.—All the members of the American delegation, including the secretaries, were received by President Diaz socially, at Chapultepec. Captain Samuel Garcia Cuellar of the president's staff acted as interpreter. A pleasant half hour was spent at the castle.

NEW PAPER AT FULTON.

The Fulton Hustler is a new daily paper published by Jno. M. Dennis, the first issue of which was published Tuesday.

WHEN OZOLGOSZ DIES.

Sing Sing, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Leon Ozolgosz will be electrocuted the coming Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock.

THE LAST DAY.

Old Officers Re-elected—Next Meeting at Parkersburg, West Va.

Association's Recommendations—They Indorse the Plan for a Lock and Dam at Mound City—Dike at Ogden's—Other Work of Today.

THIS MORNING'S PROCEEDINGS.

The delegates were all present with few exceptions when Chairman Anderson called them to order at 9:45 o'clock.

He had read by Secretary Wilson, the following telegram from President Vance, of Columbus, O.:

Columbus, O. Hon. Geo. H. Anderson, President Pro Tem. Col. E. P. Wilson, Secretary: Ohio Valley Improvement Association, Paducah: I am profoundly gratified at the action of the association as indicated in your telegram. Please convey to all members present my heartfelt thanks and appreciation of their kind greetings and flattering words of commendation.

Signed: JOHN L. VANCE.

The report of Treasurer James D. Parker showed amount on hand November 14, 1900, $185.92. Received to October 21, 1900, $8,304.81. Expenditures to October 1, 1901, $8,115.99, leaving the association out of debt and with a balance of $124.82 on hand at present.

Secretary Wilson stated that his only report was in his work. He was warmly applauded.

Letters acknowledging invitations, or expressing regret at inability to attend, and pledging support in the good work, were received as follows: James R. Young, of the merchant marine and fisheries committee of congress; George W. Smith, of Murphysboro, Ill.; D. Linn Gooch, of Cincinnati; James R. Mann, congressman from Chicago; Congressman Geo. W. Cromer, Muncie, Ind.; Congressman W. W. Skiles, Shelby, Ohio; Congressman J. W. Cassingham, Coshocton, Ohio; Congressman H. H. Bigham, Philadelphia; Congressman Emmet Tompkins, Columbus, O.; Congressman Joseph C. Libbey, Franklin, Pa.; Congressman J. H. Brownell, Cincinnati; Congressman A. G. Buck, South Bend, Ind.; Congressman H. S. Irwin, Louisville; Congressman C. H. Grosvenor, Athens, O.; Congressman J. A. Hughes, Huntington, W. Va.; Congressman J. J. Gill, Steubenville, O.; Congressman Alvin Evans, Elensburg, Pa.; Congressman Wanger, Norristown, Pa.; Congressman Geo. Edmund Foss, Chicago; Congressman Wm. H. Graham, Washington; Congressman S. Morgan, Oak Hill, O.; Congressman John Dalzell, Bradock, Pa.; Attorney N. J. Lewis, York, Pa.; Herbert R. Green, Reading, Pa.; Congressman Robert Adams, Jr., Washington, D. C.; Senator Chas. W. Fairbanks, Washington; Senator M. A. Hanna, Cleveland, O.; Senator T. B. Elkins, Elkins, W. Va.; Senator Wm. E. Mason, Chicago; Senator Cullom, Washington; Senator Wm. J. Deboe, Kentucky; Senator Scott, West Va.; Senator W. B. Roberts, of Indianapolis; Congressman H. D. Allen, Morganfield, Ky.; Senator A. J. Beveridge, Indiana.

Resolutions of respect over the death of Mr. George Longstaff, Sr., were unanimously adopted. The matter of selecting the next meeting place was then taken up, and the invitations of Evansville was presented and backed by Congressman Hemenway and ex-Congressman Poey.

The invitation of Parkersburg, West Va., was presented by J. B. Finley. That of Tell City, Ind., was also presented, but Parkersburg got the place, and Evansville will get the next meeting.

ing in 1903.

The committee on nominations made no change in the personnel of officers, except in the vice presidents from Indiana and Illinois. The list was elected unanimously.

The officers are: John L. Vance, Columbus, O., president; E. P. Wilson, Cincinnati, secretary; J. D. Parker, Cincinnati, treasurer. Vice Presidents: W. W. Hite, Louisville, for Kentucky; Geo. H. Anderson, Pittsburgh, for Pennsylvania; Henry C. Yelzer, Cincinnati, for Ohio; J. F. Browninski, of Jopka, for Illinois; Halihan Quarrier, Wheeling, for West Va.; Frank Posey, Evansville, for Indiana.

The committee on constitution reported no changes, which was adopted.

The report of the committee on resolutions which was unanimously adopted reaffirms the recommendations of the Cincinnati convention, generously recognized in the rivers and harbors bill, which failed of passage.

Recommendations that congress authorize the survey of the Ohio from the mouth of the Big Miami to Cairo. That a lock and dam be built at or near Mound City, and a dike near Ogden's Landing.

That as dredging has proven a great aid to navigation, congress be requested to make a continuous annual appropriation of $200,000 for the establishment and maintenance of continuous dredging service.

That the necessity be urged on congress for the speedy reconstruction of narrow bridge channel ways, that in the past have occasioned great loss to the commerce of the Ohio river, and needed appropriations be made for such changes. It requests congress to provide, in the charters of future bridges across our rivers where the towing system prevails, the most ample width of bridge channel ways for the safe passage of tows on these rivers.

Recommendations that the secretary of war be authorized to expend the balance now in the treasury, heretofore appropriated for the construction of levees in the Ohio river, in such manner as he may deem best for the repair and construction of said levees. That the association approve the continuance of work on the tributaries of the Ohio river in accordance with the plans of the engineer, and approved by the secretary of war, and respectfully request the necessary appropriation for the continuance of same.

This report was the most important feature of the meeting and embodies some of the most important work desired by the association.

A resolution of thanks to the Paducah papers and associated press for their courtesies, was adopted. The same ways and means committee to devise ways and means for raising funds was appointed.

Major Bixby of Cincinnati, explained a section of a dam.

The committee on ways and means then reported. It is one of the most important of the association, and recommended that the same plan be employed as heretofore—that of getting subscriptions from various cities, and donations from individuals. This was ratified.

The committee also recommended that the membership fee be increased from $5 a year to $10. The latter was after some discussion withdrawn.

THE ELKS

Tonight a Building Proposition Comes Up For Action.

TRIP TO MAYFIELD TOMORROW

This Morning at Georgetown the Convention to Form a State Association Met.

OTHER NEWS OF THE ORDER

Paducah Lodge of Elks will tonight consider a proposition to purchase property on South Third street for a hall and club room. The property can be purchased for about $8,000, and is occupied at present by the Gardner Furniture Co. The plan would be, should the lodge decide to buy it, to have the club rooms on the second floor, and the lodge room above. The trustees have recommended the purchase of the property, and the matter will probably be decided tonight.

Today at noon, at Georgetown, Ky., the meeting began that seeks to organize a state association of Elks. Mr. Will H. Farley is a delegate from Paducah Lodge, and the object of the convention is to form an association that will enable members of the order throughout the state to meet every year and become better acquainted. The Elks of the states of Indiana, New Jersey and Mississippi have already adopted the above plan, the Elks of the latter state having held their meeting October 17, at Jackson, Miss., where the Elks of Mississippi heartily indorsed the formation of the lodges into a state association, which will be of great benefit to the order.

The Elks Island Queen excursion last night was a great success, over 400 people attending. If the boat had left the night before, the crowd would probably have gone over 1,000. Last night there were many things to keep the people in the city, including the banquet of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association at the Palmer, and the wedding at Temple Israel. The Elks, however, cleared a neat sum.

The Elks met tonight in regular session, and will have the usual amount of business on hand. A report on the excursion of last night will be received, and preparations completed for the trip to Mayfield tomorrow.

The special train, as announced before, will leave Eleventh and Broadway at 1:30 p. m., and there will be a large delegation, many friends to accompany the Elks. They will return that night. Dean's band will accompany the delegation, and show the people of Mayfield what good music is. Needless to say, the Paducah crowd will be accorded a hearty welcome. Among those who will go are: C. H. Chablin, Harry Johnson, Henry Goebel, Fred Nagel, John Dipple, Alex. Storrie, M. E. Teovin, Major T. E. Moss, Mike Johnson, Simon Michelson, Louis A. Lagomarsino, Al Foreman, John Dicke, Louis Clark, H. H. Loving, John Theobald, Temple Gardner, Dave Levy, Guy Rollston, E. C. Clark, Richard Rudy, Bert Gilbert, Robert C. Benner, Joe Miller, John Lane, Van C. Burnett, Dick Clements, William Gray, Clarence Brown, F. E. Graves, Ernest Lackey, Will Dicke, Will Cochran, Luther Graham, A. W. Grief, Rodney Davis, Jeff J. Reed, Frank Schmidt, F. G. Bergdoll, Joe Everich, Bradley Wilson, John Adkins, Herman Katterjohn, John Williamson, H. F. Farnham, C. E. Whitesides, August Denker, Charles Denker, Walter Seck, Thomas Baird, John McNulty and J. C. Ash.

GRAND LODGE, K. OF P.

STATE OFFICERS ELECTED FOR THE ENSUING YEAR.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 24.—At the meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias of Kentucky, the following officers were elected:

Supreme representative, Thomas B. Batthews, Petersburg; grand chancellor, Gen. W. R. Logan, Louisville; grand vice chancellor, Col. Jonett Henry, Hopkinsville; grand prelate, J. G. Livingston, Bowling Green; grand keeper of records and seals, J. W. Carter, Owensboro; grand master of exchequer, Jule Plummer, Newport; grand master-at-arms, W. F. Schuerman, Carrollton. One hundred and eight out of one hundred and twenty-two lodges were represented. The treasurer's report showed $6,000 in the treasury for the orphans' home. The subscriptions taken amounted to $4,000. Alpha, No. 45, of Louisville, won the first drill prize; Owensboro, No. 11, the second; Louisville, No. 1, third and Winchester, No. 7, fourth. Miss Margaret Tompkins was chosen queen of the ball.

The child who is seen and not heard remains to be seen.

FURNACES START

In a Few Days the Grand Rivers Works Open.

Railroad Company Have Opened Offices at Salem, Livingston County.

The Grand Rivers furnaces, it is understood will begin operation in a few days. The work on them has been prosecuted vigorously, and hundreds of men have been at work on the works.

The new railroad proposed through Salem, Livingston county, has opened an office at Salem and established stenographers there. They expect to begin work at once.

IN BRONZE.

DR. MURRELL'S STATUE OF GEN. LEE TO BE CAST IN NEW YORK.

Dr. D. G. Murrell has sent away the statue he modeled of General Robert E. Lee and the statue is now in the hands of Mr. John Williams of New York, and a mold is being made to cast the statue in bronze. The work will be very difficult and some little time will be consumed in the preparation of the cast. The statue in bronze will not be here before the first of next year. The work is very fine and was on exhibition here several times.

The horse was the most difficult part of the statue to make and the highest compliments have been passed on it. The New York critics speak of it in the highest terms.

MR. AL YOUNG

ASSUMES MANAGEMENT OF THE SUN JOB ROOMS.

Mr. Al Young, the well known job printer, has accepted the management of The Sun's job rooms, and will take charge next week. Mr. Young is one of the best job printers in the state, and a very popular gentleman. Mr. Young was in charge of the Sun's office a year ago, when he went into business for himself, so his new position is only a returning to his first love.

HICKMAN ENTERPRISE.

Hickman, Ky., Oct. 24.—This city now has modern machinery for ginning cotton, and vast amounts of cotton are received and ginned here daily. The town has a good cotton market, all the cotton that was previously carried to Lake county, Tennessee and sold is now brought here and shipped by river. The corn crop in this vicinity is better than in any other section of the county.

JUSTICE BREWER TALKS

A Remarkable Address Delivered at the Bi-Centennial of Yale College.

INJUNCTION IDEA LUNACY.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 24.—A remarkable address was that yesterday at the bi-centennial of Yale delivered by Justice of the Supreme Court, David J. Brewer.

Judge Brewer elicited hearty applause when he referred to Yale as "place" where men are taught to recognize a Washington, whether his name is George or Booker."

In the course of his address Judge Brewer said: "The rapidity and multitude of mercantile transactions is seen in gigantic undertakings, in enormous financial consolidations and corresponding organizations of labor. Local self-control is giving way before the pressure for centralized power. The town meeting is supplanted by the state legislature, while the latter in its turn is yielding to the expanding power of congress. Political parties are largely under the management of bosses and the whole great forces of industry, business and politics seem passing under prominence of single central control.

"Is this centralizing tendency antagonistic or helpful to the republic? Is it consistent with the popular government? Apparently it is antagonistic. Against the Republican thought of equality of right; each man a ruler and equally snaring the responsibilities and powers of government.

"You cannot stay this movement towards consolidation and centralization. It is a natural evolution. The commercial spirit is taking advantage of the wonderful facilities given it by steam and electricity. Injunction against strikes will not stop it; legislation against trusts will not. Attempting to stay the movement of its chariot wheels by injunction or statute is lunacy compared with which Dime Partington's effort to stop the Atlantic was supreme wisdom. Appeal must be taken to the great court of public opinion whose decrees are irresistible."

GIVEN A LIFE SENTENCE.

John Clark, who killed his wife at Tamm, pleaded guilty at Cairo yesterday and was given a life sentence.

DAILY THOUGHT.
 "There is nothing more kingly than kindness.
 There is nothing more royal than truth.

A WONDERFUL SHOWING.
 The United States government has in its treasury $1,190,325,324 the greatest aggregate of money ever possessed by any nation in all history, says the Louisville Commercial. Of this enormous amount $796,547,089 is held for the redemption of outstanding notes and certificates and $150,000, 000 as a gold reserve fund. Included in this governmental hoard is $534, 000,000 in gold and $496,000,000 in silver, a part of each being in coin and the remainder in bullion. It would require thirty-eight freight cars to haul all the gold owned by the government, the mass weighing about 1,750,000 pounds.

There is a good deal of comment in official circles upon the coincidence that, while the United States government is looking about for means of reducing its revenues and disposing of a big treasury surplus, all the other leading nations of the world are in more or less trouble with lack of revenue and steadily increasing deficits.

Great Britain has had to borrow large sums and increase taxes for carrying on the Boer war. It is commonly understood that one of the purposes of the recent visit of the czar to France was the encouragement of another Russian loan. France herself, it has just been discovered, is confronted with a deficit this current year of about 100,000,000 francs. The German revenues are not in a satisfactory condition, and Japan is at all times hard pressed for money, and is even now seeking a loan.

Ozolgoss can neither read nor write, it is said. In his latest utterances he claims that he killed the president because he had heard so much about prosperity and had seen none of it.
 He asked the president for a job, he declares, and was given none. He asked others for work, also, and did not get it, but he did not kill any of them. Men like Ozolgoss, who cannot read or write, and spend their

PLAIN TALK

TO CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Every person suffering from catarrh in its many forms knows that the common lotions, salves and douches do not cure. It is needless to argue this point to cite cases of failure, because every victim of catarrhal trouble knows it for himself if he has tried them.

A local application, if it does anything at all, simply gives temporary relief; a wash, lotion, salve or powder cannot reach the seat of the disease, which is the blood.

The mucous membrane seeks to relieve the blood of catarrhal poison by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, descending into the throat and larynx, causing an irritating cough, indigestion and many other disagreeable and persistent symptoms.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal treatment; a remedy which will gradually cleanse the system from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion always present in the mucous membrane.

The best remedies for this purpose are Eucalyptol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, but the difficulty has always been to get these valuable curatives combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

Recently this has been accomplished, and the preparation put on the market under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, so that they may be slowly dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane and, finally, the stomach and intestines.

An advantage to be considered, also, is that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, morphine or poisonous narcotics, so often found in catarrh powders, and the use of which often entails a habit more dangerous than the disease.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for full sized package and are probably the safest and most effective catarrh cure on the market.

time listening to the ravings of ar-chaisms, can expect to enjoy little of the fruits of prosperity.

This has been the most important day of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association. Yesterday the work was largely preliminary. The plan of the association now is to extend its influence and increase its membership, and when it makes its requests of congress, have a large and influential backing.

This is the only way to make any impression on congress. The delegates are thoroughly in earnest, and are delighted with the success of the Paducah meeting.

It is now claimed that the Turkish troops, which were supposed to be pursuing the bandits who captured Miss Stone, the missionary, with relentless fury, have in reality been aiding them and giving them food. This is no more than might have been expected from the wily Turk, and gives the United States another score to settle with the Sultan.

Editor G. Lay Wolf has sold the Brooklyn Eagle, and the glowing bits of humor and wit that have always adorned the pages of that journal, will be no more. Editor Wolf had a habit of devoting a dollar's worth of space to every subscriber who came in and paid a fifty cent subscription.

The Mayfield Messenger, whose editor is something of a snake story teller himself, claims that the rattlesnake that the Fourth street Paducah paper discovered Sunday last came from some of the bad whiskey that is found in Paducah, and not from a local hay.

The Pan-American conference has opened in Mexico. Its object is to promote friendly understanding and fraternal harmony between the countries of this hemisphere. It is well attended.

The papers that are publishing the sentiments of the Southern papers on President Roosevelt take particular pains not to print anything on the other side of the question from the eastern papers.

The Goebell papers do not seem to take as much interest in the proceedings of the Power's trial at Georgetown since the defense has begun to nail a few of the prosecution's lies.

A brainier or better set of fellows never visited Paducah than the jolly delegates to the Waterways Convention. And they seem to have enjoyed their stay in Paducah.

The Powers case ends this week and the Schley court of inquiry next. The country will then have to fall back on Mrs. Carrie Nation and Aginaldo.

MR. LANGSTAFF'S FUNERAL.
 The funeral of the late Mr. George Langstaff, Sr., took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Episcopal church, Rev. B. E. Reed officiating.
 The pall bearers were: Active—Henry M. Orme, George Brownell, James M. Clements, Robert L. Reeves, Edward Woolfolk, Charles W. Thompson, Nolen VanCulin and Linneaus G.
 Orme. Honorary—John C. Noble,

BIG CONFERENCE

Pan-American Delegates Addressed
 at Mexico City.

The Minister of Foreign Relations Delivers the Opening Speech.

Mexico City, Oct. 24.—The Pan-American conference was formally opened by Hon. Ignacio Mariscal, minister of foreign relations, who made the address of welcome. He said in part:

"Messrs. delegates: It is more than eleven years ago since an international American conference, destined to promote a friendly understanding and fraternal harmony between the nations of this hemisphere, met at the city of Washington for the first time in history. Since then a sufficient period has elapsed to reflect regarding the means leading to such a glorious end, and events which have occurred in the whole world, the efforts made in Europe with the noble object of attaining similar results, whether it be among the several nations of the old continent and some republics of ours, or among the Spanish speaking people, it may serve us as a guide and example to push forward such delicate undertaking. Undoubtedly we should not despair owing to the little which apparently has been attained, if we compare the grand aspirations previous to gatherings such as the one that is today inaugurated, because, if rightly understood, what has been obtained is not of so little importance, nor is there any reason to fear that this congress will fail to make an advance on the work of its predecessor, whose labors can in no wise be considered as lost to the world. Every step that humanity takes in the true path to progress, however insignificant it may appear to be, if taken along the true direction, of its well being, which no thinker disputes and which every philanthropist yearns for, every step having for its object humanitarian interests, is a conquest that can never be lost; a stake firmly driven to point out the true pathway of advancement.

As is well known, force is never eliminated in physical world; it is merely transformed and all problems refer to the manner of its utilization. The advance made by political sciences, and the emotions produced by the contact of various peoples in special circumstances are tangible or remain in the latent state, but have the germs of life in them and will bear fruit some day to the advantage of the nation wherein they may have been produced. It is, therefore, the duty of statesmen to obtain the greatest practical results from these advance agents and impressions which are really indestructible. We plainly perceive it is not due to fleeting caprice of this or that nation, nor of the opinion of one or more philosophers, nor even the crisis of anguish from the weak trembling before the threatening forces, but from force itself tempered by noble submission.

"The movement was directed in Europe by the czar of all the Russias, who represents a formidable military power; and in this hemisphere it had its birth previously in the United States of America, the most populous and powerful nation of our continent.
 Hence such a movement has a very important origin and must be impelled by a current of ideas as general as irresistible. Gentlemen, I am sure that in your approaching labors you will take advantage of such favorable elements, I am also certain that you will do your utmost to aid all spirit of disquisitions, be it springing from our concrete questions, or arising from traditions or instincts incompatible with a true Pan-American sentiment which does not admit geographical distinctions, nor make any difference as to race or language, which might place in opposition to each other the inhabitants of the world discovered by Columbus."

DESTROYED BY FIRE.
 The home of Mr. L. Petter, in Arcadia near the Trimble farm, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon.
 The blaze caught from a defective flue, and all efforts to save the structure were unavailing. The loss will amount to $1,100, with no insurance.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

of cod-liver oil is the means of life, and enjoyment of life to thousands: men women and children.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food.
 But what is the use of food, when you hate it, and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, a agreeable taste will surprise you.

THE RIVER NEWS

(BY W. F. LAMRICH, REPORTER.)

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 3.4 on the gauge, a fall of .02. In last 24 hours. Wind northwest, a light breeze. Weather clear and warmer.
 Temperature 58. Fell, Observer.

Business in river circles just "tolerable only" today.

The Bob Dudley is off the ways.
 The Tennessee goes on next Saturday.
 The Dick Fowler departed for Cairo on time this morning with a good trip.

The City of Clifton from St. Louis will pass up the Tennessee river today.

The City of Carversville left this morning for Golconda at 9:30 with a good trip.

The H. W. Butteroff is the mail and express packet leaving here today for Evansville.

The Clyde skipped for Tennessee river last night at 7 o'clock with a very good trip.

The waterways delegates will attend the Kentucky opera house tonight in a body.

The new Lee Liner, Sadie Lee, was launched from the Howard yards at Jeffersonville yesterday.

Captain Frank Cassidy, the widely known steamboat agent of Cairo, Ill., is attending the convention here.

Nearly all of "Monkey Wrench Corner's" regular guests attended the water ways convention yesterday.

The Bob Dudley did not arrive from Clarksville until 8:30 last night and departed for Nashville at midnight.

The J. B. Finley is the only steamboat that ever ran on the Ohio or Mississippi rivers without cleaning boilers.

The Evansville Mail company has a No. 1 steamboat hull for sale. It is 160 feet long, 31 feet wide and 5 feet hold.

The J. B. Richardson arrived from Evansville at 5:30 last evening with fair business and departed on return trip at 7 p. m.

The Elks' excursion on the Island Queen was well patronized last night and added considerable more to the already plethora of the order.

River still falling and is now very low with but little hopes of an early recovery on 3.4 on the gauge this morning, which is an exceedingly low pulse.

All the packets except the Dick Fowler have been knocked out of time on account of fog. The Dick is so rapid that she dodges it by going around it.

What's the matter with Billy Arste of the waterways journal? He ought to "blow his bugle" in the convention, as he is "well up" in all things nautical.

The Tennessee is due tomorrow morning from Tennessee river, and will be taken on the ways for repairs next Saturday. The Henry Harley will represent her place while being repaired leaving here for Tennessee river next Saturday at 5 p. m.

A new booklet for the Diamond Jo line, entitled "Steamboating on the Upper Mississippi," is being prepared by Edward Mead, an artist and composer, for next season's travel. Messrs.
 Mead and Stark were the authors of "Pleasure Rest," that was gotten out for the Diamond Jo line last year.

Captain Frank Ellison's well worded speech at the convention assembly yesterday was ably rendered and his Paducah friends were especially interested in his able and fore-bearing address. Captain Ellison was born and raised in this city, and his friends here who are legion, feel proud of him as a man and will add that he is also recognized as one of the best steamboat men of the present day,
 "up-to-date" in all things pertaining to river interest.

The waterways convention held in this city yesterday and today was one of the most pleasant that ever convened in any of the cities since the first convention held pertaining to river improvements some ten years since. The delegates are speaking in the highest praise of the hospitality accorded them at this meeting, which will prove ever memorable to all the delegates in attendance. The keys of the city were virtually theirs.
 The hospitality so marked and noted as it ever has been was just what Kentuckians always do when they invite their brethren from abroad, even across the stream that divides "Mason and Dixon's" line in sections north and south. When it comes down to entertaining old Kaintuck is ever in the front rank.

Robert E. Lee, of the Lee line at Memphis, says his line had been rather lucky this year in the matter of labor, but that it was a serious problem that must be given attention in the future. He did not think that there would ever be a period when the white man would take the negro's place in the steamboat business. It required a knack of handling cotton that came natural to the negro, but could not be acquired by the white man.
 The endurance of the negro, continued Captain Lee, had been sadly lessened, and he was not able to stand the labor of former days. He no longer used the character of food that produced blood, and muscle; he filled himself with whiskey, cocaine and other "dope," and had through evil practice let his system become weakened by disease. With the situation confronting the river people, in which the value of the labor is decreased and the cost increased, it will readily be seen that the wise heads are not looking to the future any too soon.

We had the pleasure this morning of meeting Col. Tom Hall, the veteran steamboatman, steamboat agent and also river editor of the Louisville Post. Mr. Hall has been a resident of the Kentucky metropolis many years and is an enthusiastic delegate to the waterways convention assembled here. He gave us interesting accounts of his past steamboat life and in conversation related some very interesting antebellum stories of his steamboat career back in the fifties.
 One of which we take the liberty of using, relative to the steamer Atlantic of the Louisville and New Orleans trade in the fifties of which Col. Hall was one of her clerks. In '55 the Atlantic made three successive trips in which she received her entire cargo composed of tobacco and corn. These trips were received at Owensboro, Henderson and Uniontown, averaging 1500 hogheads of tobacco at Owensboro and Henderson and 7,000 sacks of corn each trip. At Uniontown which loaded her flat these cargoes were taken to the Balize, at the mouth of the Mississippi and re-shipped on the Ocean Monarch, one of the largest ocean ships afloat at that day, the three cargoes of the Atlantic were taken to Liverpool at one trip by the Ocean Monarch. She left at the Balize until all three trips were delivered by the Atlantic. One of the remarkable features of the trip, was the perfect order in which the shipments were delivered by the Atlantic. Mr.
 Hall states that out of the 3500 hogheads of tobacco delivered to the Ocean Monarch there were only nine hogheads that required re-loading.
 If a similar shipment should be made at the present day of steamboating there would be not less than 250 hogheads of tobacco that would require re-loading and re-heading.

Col. Hall also was an old Confederate soldier under the gallant chieftain, Gen. John U. Breckinridge and seems to have lost none of his old enthusiasm in behalf of the lost cause.
 The colonel speaks in the highest praise of the popularity of Paducah people and says it is nothing more than he expected, as he has visited Paducah before and knows just what kind of timber its citizens are composed of. The colonel, although quite gray, looks as vigorous and active as a man of 30, and from appearance he has many more years allotted him.
 May he live to a good ripe old age of continued usefulness.

THE BALLOTS.
 INSTRUCTIONS RELATIVE TO THE POSITION OF DE-VICES.

Something of the appearance of the ballots to be used in the November election may be learned from the following letter of instructions to County Clerk Graham from Secretary of State Hill:

"Frankfort, Ky.—To the county clerk of McCracken county: In arranging the official ballot for your county for the regular November election, to be held November 5, 1901, you are directed to cause to be printed thereon the various party devices or emblems, with the party names or titles and groups of names beneath them as they appear herein, viz:

"First on the left side of the ballot, the device of the Democratic party—
 "a game cock in the act of crowing" —and its title and group of candidates beneath it; next the device of the Republican party—a "log cabin"—and its title and group of candidates beneath it; next the device of the Prohibition party—a "phoenix"—and its name or title and group of candidates beneath it. Provided, however, that only the devices or emblems of the parties represented by a candidate or candidates are to appear on the ballot."

GASTRITIS.
 Caused by Some Irritant Acting Upon the Mucous Membrane of the Stomach.

Inflammation of the stomach, gastric catarrh or gastritis, as this unpleasant affliction is variously called, may like most inflammatory diseases, be acute or chronic in its course. The symptoms of gastritis are more or less fever, weak pulse, loss of appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, bad taste in the mouth, the head aches daily. There is a sensation of weight or distress in the stomach. Gastritis is caused by some irritant acting on the mucous membrane of the stomach, the irritant is often formed in the stomach by the accumulation of indigestible food.
 Gastritis will never develop if you take regularly, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the guaranteed cure for indigestion, constipation and all diseases arising from stomach troubles. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an all the year round medicine. Good for the whole family from the smallest infant up. It is the best, best, best. Most druggists sell it. 50c per bottle. Ask yours. If he hasn't he will send you a valuable book, "Told by a Doctor," and sample bottle free. Pepsin Syrup Company, Monticello, Wis.

SOCIAL NOTES.

There is a euchre party at the Palmer House this afternoon, complimentary to the visiting ladies in attendance upon the Wallerstein-Levy wedding. It is quite an elaborate function.

SUES ON A CONTRACT.

E. E. Lynn filed a suit against H. Robert Fowler today in the circuit court to recover $500, which he alleges is due him on a verbal contract which he lived up to and fulfilled with satisfaction. He states that he was employed by the defendant to comprise a misunderstanding relative to the settlement with the Cosby heirs, and that he performed his side of the contract, but received no pay.

LARGER QUARTERS NECESSARY.

Mr. H. G. Harmeling, the merchant tailor, has rented the shop formerly occupied by Chas. Riddle, under the New Richmond house, and is today removing his tailors to that place. He will do all the tailoring work at the lower shop and will run a cleaning and repairing shop at his old stand under the Palmer house. The increase in the trade has necessitated the enlargement.

The blaze caught from a defective stove, and all efforts to save the structure were unavailing. The loss will amount to $1,100, with no insurance. The worm should turn in before the early bird turns out.

POLICE COURT

The Malicious Cutting Case Partially Heard this Morning.

A Dog Stealing Case Was Continued Until Tomorrow Morning.

Frank Poe of the county was arrested last night on a charge of maliciously cutting Charles Summers, an employee at Langstaff's. It appears Summers was talking to a friend on South Second about squirrel hunting when Poe came up drunk and insisted on interjecting remarks into the conversation. Summers objected and Poe jabbed him with his knife, inflicting a mere scratch. He said he had killed three men, and Summers would be the fourth. He was knocked down after cutting Summers. The evidence seems to be vague, and the case was left open until tomorrow.

Walter Vaughan and Bob Dorris had a difficulty on the Island Queen last night, and upon reaching Broadway on their return renewed it. Vaughan was with a young lady, and gave her his coat to hold. They were both willing to fight, but Dorris heard Vaughan had a knife, and threw a stone at him, then turning away. The case was left open.

W. D. Meyers, white, a railroad man, was arrested at Louisville on a charge of stealing Phil Corheimer's dog. He claims he bought it of Obadiah Braunschaw, colored, and the latter is also charged with grand larceny, but claims he knows nothing about the dog. The case was continued until tomorrow.

THIRD STREET METHODIST SERVICE.

The meeting at the Third street Methodist church started well last evening. There was a good attendance, and the pastor, Rev. W. A. Russell, made a strong and helpful talk from the words of Joshua to the people, "Be of good courage." The services will be largely informal, and all are invited to attend and take part in the worship. The pastor will be assisted by various local ministers. The singing will also be a feature of the meeting. Services every evening at 7:30 p. m.

COUNTY COURT.

Judge Emery has not yet rendered a decision in the Ball vs. Flannigan case but will likely do so before the day is ended. There is still a little authority to read and after the lawyers have finished with this the decision will be rendered.

There is only one case to be tried today. B. H. Pryor sues Isaac Parham to recover $31 claimed to be due on a farm laborer contract. The case will be brought up in Judge Emery's court this afternoon.

PETE RICHARDS VERY ILL.

Pete Richard, who is in the county jail awaiting the action of the court in the appeal taken soon after his conviction for diamond robbery was made, is very ill and has wasted away to a shadow. When he was first arrested and placed in jail he weighed 160 pounds and now he will not tip the scales at 100. The confinement does not agree with him and it is the opinion that he will "pass in his checks" before many moons, unless he is released.

MR. TOBIAS KETTLER ILL.

Mr. Tobias Kettler, a well known citizen, was seized with cramps and paralysis about noon today, and for a time was thought to be dying. Several doctors were called, and at present time he is thought to be better, with good chances of recovery. He is 76 years old, and has many friends who will wish him a speedy recovery.

U. D. C. MEETING.

There will be a called meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy on Friday afternoon, at the Palmer House, at two o'clock. All the members are urged to attend this meeting, as business of importance will come before the chapter that must be settled at once.

MR. BROWN'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mr. Alex Brown will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from the residence at Third and Madison, burial at Oak Grove. The pall bearers will be: R. J. Settle, J. Henry Smith, James Campbell, F. M. McGlathery and J. T. Wright.

THE LAST DAY.

The work of raising funds by subscriptions was begun, and all the big steamboat companies, many of the cities, and several individual members, gave in subscriptions amounting to over $1500.

Additional funds will be raised by membership fees and new members, amounting to several thousand dollars.

The subscriptions were: Evansville, Paducah and Cairo Packet Co., $50.

J. F. Brown, Jopka, $50.

City of Paducah, $100.

Parkersburg, West Va., $100.

Tell City, Ind., $25.

Cincinnati Consolidated Boat store company, $50.

R. W. Wise, $50.

Madison, Ind., $50.

Captain F. M. Dangherly, agent for the association, stated that he had organized every city between Madison, Ind., and Paducah, and each city had a corps of officers, and were taking great interest in the work. He guaranteed a membership of 100, at least, within the next year.

A resolution was introduced by Mr. Finley, of Parkersburg, authorizing the executive committee to appoint two solicitors at reasonable compensation to work all the towns on the Ohio river for membership, the fee to be paid any time not exceeding five years.

A motion was made to amend the resolution by retaining Captain Dangherly, but this was not seconded as it would take from the executive committee the power to employ whoever it pleased. The resolution was adopted.

Senator Doyener, of West Va., addressed the convention relative to the manner of introducing bills in congress and said that nothing appealed to the congressional committee so strongly as resolutions from legislative bodies. The legislators of various states will be in session in the spring, and he thought, it might be well to consider the matter of having legislative bodies presented to congress. It could at least do no harm.

Mr. Bettinger, of Cincinnati, thought it might be well to leave this to a legislative committee. In this the convention concurred, authorizing the chair to appoint at its leisure, the committee.

Chairman Anderson stated that the convention had been characterized by harmony to a marked degree, and was evidently very enthusiastic in its work. He thought much good had been done, and good results will follow the proceedings.

Mr. E. A. Fowler, in behalf of the citizens of Paducah, said that much gratification was felt by the people over the large crowd present, and the kind words spoken by the delegates will be ever remembered.

At 12:30 the convention adjourned to meet again on the Island Queen.

THIS AFTERNOON.

At 2 o'clock the delegates marched to the wharf, where they boarded the Island Queen, and with many citizens left to cruise about until 5 o'clock.

THIS EVENING.

Tonight the delegates will all attend the Wilbur Opera company performance at The Kentucky. By morning most of them will have been gone.

YESTERDAY AFTER.

NOON'S ADDRESSES.

Yesterday afternoon's session of the convention was entirely devoted to addresses from congressmen. Congressman B. B. Doyener, of Wheeling, West Va.; J. N. Kehoe, of Mayville, Ky.; Hemmings, of Booneville, Ind.; and Williams of Indiana, all made good speeches, supporting the work of the association, and pledging their influence to the rivers and harbors work in congress. They roundly deplored the senatorial courtesy that enables the measures to be killed in congress, and with one accord advocated appropriations that will enable the government to make the much needed improvements in the river.

Congressman Allen, of Kentucky, was to speak, but was called away about that time and could not address the convention.

Captain John F. Dravo, of Pittsburg, who has been interested in the work of improving the Ohio Valley for fifty years or longer, and longer than any one else in the United States, also made an address, and in his speech among other things advocated the Nicaragua canal project.

A resolution deploring the death of Captain John Gilbert, of Evansville, was presented by Ex-Congressman Posey, of Evansville, and unanimously adopted.

THE BANQUET.

The banquet last night was well attended at the Palmer house. Mr. Saunders A. Fowler acted as toastmaster. Covers were laid for 150 guests. Those who responded to toasts were: Hon. John F. Dravo, of Pittsburg; Colonel E. P. Wilson, secretary of the association, of Cincinnati;

Congressman J. N. Kehoe, of Mayville; Congressman J. A. Hemmings, of Indiana; Hon. Albert Bettinger, of Cincinnati, and others. The banquet was a most delightful affair, and was enjoyed by all.

The arrivals yesterday afternoon and last evening were: J. R. Williams, Carmi, Ill.; Irwin, Dugan, Louisville; Captain Leo Brooks, Cincinnati; Frank E. Williams, Evansville; Geo. W. DuPuy, Evansville; A. J. Powell, Evansville; J. C. Van Pelt, Louisville; C. W. Bransford, Owensboro; F. M. Rondurant, Cincinnati; Tom Ryman, Jr., Nashville; U. G. Gullett, A. McTyre, Henry Ledbetter, L. F. Twitchell, J. P. Ferrell, Wm. P. Warford, J. R. Patton, J. E. Server, Wm. R. Martin, Pernett Ferrell, Elizabethtown, Ill.; W. H. Sosper, Henderson; Wm. Rahm, Evansville.

Rev. G. W. Perryman is having good congregations at Olivet church, where he is holding a meeting.
